NASHVILLE/MIDSOUTH CHAPTER OF
THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF TELEVISION ARTS & SCIENCES
ANNOUNCES NOMINATIONS FOR THE 27TH MIDSOUTH EMMY® AWARDS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. –(Nov. 15, 2012) The Nashville/Midsouth Chapter of The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (NATAS) announced their Midsouth Regional Emmy® Award nominations on Thursday, November 15, at a Broadcast Music Incorporated (BMI) party on Nashville's legendary Music Row. Margaret Collins of BMI welcomed the academy and introduced NATAS Nashville/Midsouth President and National Trustee Ellen Jones Pryor of the Frist Center for the Visual Arts. Ms. Pryor said "The upcoming gala will mark our twenty-seventh Emmy® Awards. For this grand occasion, we are proud to return to the Schermerhorn Symphony Center on January 26, 2013. The television remote facilities will be provided in high definition by Tennessee Digital Video, with additional support for the live telecast from guestbooker.com, and Regions."

NATAS National Trustee Gene Policinski of The First Amendment Center announced that the Board of Governors selected the Vanderbilt Television News Archive as the recipient of the Governors' Award for Lifetime Achievement, the academy's highest honor. He said, "It is the world's most extensive archive of television news, creating, preserving and providing access to the U.S. network news broadcasts which have been recorded since August 5, 1968."

Silver Circle Chairman Phillip L. Bell of BellMedia announced the newest inductees into the prestigious Silver Circle which honors contributions to broadcasting over a quarter century. The honorees are Matthew Zelkind of WKRN Nashville, the longest tenured news director ever in the Nashville market. The second inductee is Gregg Stone of WHNT, Huntsville, a photographer with 34 years of experience, who has had a front row seat to history, including the first and final flights of the Space Shuttle.

Jennifer Lane of Decosimo Vaden. CPAs, who tabulated the ballots, announced that nearly 800 entries for the Midsouth Emmy® Awards were judged by the Chicago/Midwest Chapter, the Suncoast Chapter, based in Miami, and the Ohio Valley Chapter, which includes Columbus, Dayton and Cincinnati. She said "Seventy-eight television stations, production companies, and independent producers are named on the list of nominations."

Contributions to the nomination party were made by Nancy Moore of BMI; Beth Tucker Womack, the voice of NATAS Nashville/Midsouth; Nic Dugger of tndv.com; David Bennett; Deidre Cischke and John Hussey of PK Pictures; Mark Lonsway and Aaron Gant of Warner/Chappell Production Music, and still photographer, Tommy Lawson.

A complete list of nominees follows. For further information or photos: Geneva Brignolo, 615-259-0040, emmynash@aol.com

The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences is a non-profit, professional organization dedicated to fostering excellence in television. The academy has 19 chapters with 15,000 members nationwide. The Nashville/Midsouth Region encompasses the States of North Carolina (except Asheville) and Tennessee, and northern Alabama.
