

North Carolina Association of Broadcasters

Call For Entries

Every year NCAB honors the “best of the best” in the North Carolina broadcast industry with the Association’s most prestigious awards — the Hall of Fame Award, the Distinguished Service Award, and the Wade Hargrove Community Leadership Award. Please help us by nominating someone you believe has made a difference and, therefore, worthy of this tribute. Nomination forms for all awards are available on the NCAB website. Please visit www.ncbroadcast.com to download nomination forms.

Hall of Fame Award

The Hall of Fame Award was initiated in 1970. Consideration is given to North Carolina residents who have made significant contributions to broadcasting in the state, persons born in North Carolina who have made significant contributions to the broadcast industry outside the state and persons either born or residing outside of North Carolina who have made significant contributions to broadcasting in North Carolina. This award is designed to recognize and honor persons who have contributed to the broadcast industry in the past or over an extended period of time.

Distinguished Service Award

The Distinguished Service Award was authorized in 1973 in memory of the late Earle Gluck, who was a pioneer in broadcasting in North Carolina and played a significant role in the formation and development of NCAB. This award is given for outstanding service to or on behalf of the broadcast industry. This award is bestowed either annually or less frequently as the occasion warrants and is intended to recognize “current” contributions to broadcasting - as opposed to contributions made in the past or made over an extended period of time, which are recognized by the Hall of Fame Award.

Wade H. Hargrove Community Leadership Award

Unlike the NCAB Distinguished Service Award which recognizes service to North Carolina and to the broadcast industry, The Wade H. Hargrove Community Leadership Award is intended to recognize a NCAB member station, a non-NCAB member individual, or a group of people of people who have made significant contributions toward their communities.

This award was established in 2011 to honor Wade Hargrove who has dedicated his long career to protecting the rights of all broadcasters. Mr. Hargrove served as Executive Director and General Counsel to the North Carolina Association of Broadcasters for over 40 years.

Nomination forms must be submitted no later than April 28, 2023.

NORTH CAROLINA ASSOCIATION OF BROADCASTERS
Nomination Form

Unlike the NCAB Distinguished Service Award which recognizes service to North Carolina and to the broadcast industry, The Wade H. Hargrove Community Leadership Award is intended to recognize a NCAB member station, a non-NCAB member individual, or a group of people of people who have made significant contributions toward their communities. In keeping with the FCC mandate of “serving the public interest, convenience, and necessity,” these contributions may be made through public service campaigns, community events, service as an officer or elected official, or service on local boards and civic organizations.

This award was established in 2011 to honor Wade Hargrove who has dedicated his long career to protecting the rights of all broadcasters. Mr. Hargrove served as Executive Director and General Counsel to the North Carolina Association of Broadcasters for over 40 years.

Consideration for this Award will be given to North Carolina broadcasters employed by an NCAB member station.
